Editorial

Dear colleagues,

We are very pleased to announce the launch of the September issue of the Medical Journal of Bakırk y.

The Medical Journal of Bakırk y will continue to be an international journal mainly devoted to the publication of original studies and research. In this September issue, we have put together a group of original articles.

I hope you will enjoy this new issue of BMJ and consider submitting your future work to this promising academic venue.

With my best regards,

Prof. Dr. Esra Őevketođlu
Chief Editor
